Dated 23.05.2025

CIRCULAR

Sub: Third Party Payment - Reg.

The practice of accepting payments from one party on behalf of another, based on the mutual consent of both entities was allowed before the implementation of the EBS.

Now, in light of ensuring procedural transparency, financial accountability, and legal clarity, the Competent Authority has approved to discontinue the practice of accepting payments from third parties, that is, from entities other than the one to whom the service or facility is allotted to uphold standard financial practices to ensure contractual accountability.
