TRADE NOTICE

Subject: Streamlining of Onboard Permission Process

In view of various representations received from the trade and with a view to streamline and simplify the process of obtaining onboard permissions by vessel agents for various onboard works, the Competent Authority has approved that the responsibility for granting onboard permissions shall henceforth rest exclusively with the Marine Department. Accordingly, the involvement or approval of Traffic Officials shall no longer be required for the issuance of onboard permissions.

All Port Users and Trade Associations are hereby advised to take note of the above and adhere to the revised procedure with immediate effect.
